5 Japanese Foods

Japanese cuisine is very different depending on the time of year. Japan has a strong food culture. Prefectures are famous for particular foods. For example, my two favorites are strawberries in Tochigi and cherries in Yamagata. There are many kinds of dishes from cold to hot pot dishes. (45words)

Festivals

Japanese festivals are very unique (different and special). For example in Japan there are four seasons and each season has different themes for events and activities. I like the fireworks festivals in summer and also the snow festivals in winter. As well I like the variety of foods you can eat. (51 words)
